

Trade Adjustment Assistance Program

Were you laid-off due to foreign trade or was your job outsourced to another country?

The Trade Adjustment Assistance (TAA) Program assists workers who are laid off or threatened with layoff due to foreign competition or outsourcing of jobs to another country.

TAA works with trade-affected workers to help them return to suitable employment as quickly as possible.

TAA is operated by the Department of Labor Employment and Training Administration and administered by the Arizona Department of Economic Security.
