IV. Standards

A. MSG is used to measure the short-term progress of clients enrolled in education or training services for a specific period.

B. MSG is intended to record milestones throughout the life of the case and should not be used as an exit based measure when the case concludes.

C. VR staff must record the milestones of clients that are:
   1. In an education or training program that leads to a verified postsecondary credential, and
   2. Already achieving academic, technical, occupational, or other forms of progress, towards a credential or employment.

D. The types of achievements for MSG accepted by VR are as follows:
