I. POLICY STATEMENT

The Arizona Department of Economic Security (the Department) is committed to supporting child care providers and caregivers to find the resources and support that are essential to ensuring access to quality child care for all children. Federal rule, under the Child Care and Development Fund (CCDF) requires States to provide information about age-appropriate social-emotional behavioral health policies for children from birth to school-age, and policies to prevent suspension, expulsion, and denial of services due to behavior of children birth to age 5 in child care and other early childhood programs.

Research demonstrates that suspensions and expulsions of children in child care settings are detrimental for children, families, and child care providers, and has a disproportionate impact along both gender and racial lines. Suspension and expulsion practices have been found to be ineffective in addressing the behaviors that adult caregivers may find challenging, are counterproductive to the goal of preparing children to succeed in school and life, and can influence a number of adverse outcomes across development, health and education.

To support positive social-emotional development, it is best to teach prosocial skills and help children feel connected and safe in their child care environment. Strategies to prevent challenging behaviors are essential skills for all caregivers. Child care providers and parents need sufficient knowledge, skills, and support to ensure children experience a high-quality early childhood program that utilizes developmentally appropriate practices to help each child grow and develop.

The Department requires providers to utilize all supports to prevent suspension and expulsion of children from child care settings. The Department provides assistance through education, training and support mechanisms for parents and child care providers related to any issues that may lead to the suspension and/or expulsion of children in care.

The Department, when deemed the child care provider is non-compliant with this policy, shall issue the provider a Corrective Action Plan mandating the provider to complete an approved training or identify other actions as appropriate to the situation through a Corrective Action Plan (CAP).

SAMPLE CHILD CARE PROVIDER EXPULSION PREVENTION POLICY

Purpose

The purpose of this Sample Expulsion Prevention Policy is to help guide early childhood providers in developing the required internal policy and procedure for preventing suspension and expulsion in child care settings. An internal policy and procedure can help ensure the support of families and early childhood programs in preventing suspensions and expulsion in early childhood settings.

In order to receive federal funding, states are required to implement policies to prevent suspension, expulsion and denial of services due to behaviors of children in child care programs, and to provide information and support about age-appropriate social-emotional and positive behavior interventions and models.

Research demonstrates that preschool expulsions are linked to:

- Missed opportunities to learn, socialize with other children and interact with positive adult role models.
- Risk of developing ongoing behavioral problems and negative views about learning, school, teachers, and the world around them which can lead to greater challenges later in life.
- Unaddressed mental health needs that can result in challenging behaviors and other long term effects.
- Therefore, developing an internal policy and procedure to prevent suspension and expulsion that is shared with all early childhood staff and families helps support continual enrollment and positive social and emotional development in children.

Sample Expulsion Prevention Policy

We believe that all domains of learning are supported during play and through nourishing, positive, interactions with adults and peers. One of the fundamental responsibilities of our program is to further the social and emotional development of children in our care. The preschool age is a crucial time for children to learn how to regulate social and emotional skills, such as feelings, thoughts, attention, and behavior. Part of children's social development is learning how to interact with their peers and other adults. We encourage interactions between children and their teachers to help them learn to form relationships.

We know that when children are provided opportunities and guidance to develop, learn, and practice self-control and other social and emotional skills, it gives them the foundation necessary for academic and life success. Developing social and emotional skills also requires communication between providers and caregivers in how to support the child in their learning process.

We support children's development and work diligently to prevent expulsion through:

Our Environment

- Staff regularly observe the classroom environment and the children as they interact in it to ensure it promotes healthy social interactions (ex. activities are made available long enough for all children to participate)
- We develop schedules that meet the needs of children to ensure transitions throughout the day are smooth and to avoid long periods of wait time
- We are flexible in our schedule and follow the interests of the children's cognitive, physical, and biological needs
- We provide children with materials and engage them in activities that are appropriate for their age and respectful to them as individuals

See page 2 for USDA/EOE/ADA disclosures
Our Teachers

- Teachers make an effort to communicate daily or weekly (in-person, phone, email, etc.) to parents on their child’s development, in particular to identify and address any social, emotional, behavioral, or health issues that may arise
- Encourage peer relationships by creating social opportunities and working with children to resolve conflict
- Assist children to put words to their emotions (ex. “Emily, I can tell you were mad when James took your block.”)
- Use positive methods of support and redirect the child’s behavior by providing alternative actions and behaviors that are acceptable

Our Families

- Communicate regularly with staff to ensure consistency in guidance between home and school
- Partners with us and allow us time to work with all children, including those needing higher levels of support
- Understand and acknowledge that we do not expel children as they are learning skills, and understand that we strive to serve individual needs while ensuring the safety of young children
- When applicable, partner with experts in social and emotional skill development to help give a child the best foundation for academic and life success

Our Children

- Develop confidence and self-efficacy
- Develop skills to help them regulate their behaviors and emotions
- Participate in play and activities to learn social and emotional skills
- Learn how to resolve conflict in a healthy manner (using appropriate words instead of physical harm)

Thank you for choosing to allow our staff to support your child’s development. We are committed to each child’s development and success, and we do not exclude or dismiss children from our program because of concerns with behavior. Behavior concerns tell us that children need more time, support and practice to develop their social and emotional skills. When serious concerns arise, we will partner with parents and professionals who specialize in supporting children’s social and emotional health. On rare occasions, we may work with families to seek the best care for their child if all parties agree that our program can no longer meet the needs of an individual child.

PRESCHOOL SUSPENSION & EXPULSION PREVENTION SUPPORT FOR FAMILIES
(For children ages birth through 12 years old)

HAVE YOU BEEN ASKED TO...
◦ Pick up your child early from child care due to challenging behaviors?
◦ Not return to the child care site for several days?
◦ Reduce the number of hours your child attends child care?
These are all examples of child care expulsion.

DID YOU KNOW?
◦ The primary goal of early education is to launch children on their educational journeys so they can succeed in elementary school and beyond
◦ Preschool-age children are expelled at three times the rate of children in kindergarten through 12th grade. This practice deprives young children of the benefits of early childhood education and may leave unaddressed mental health issues that can result in challenging behaviors and other long term effects
◦ An early childhood mental health consultation can reduce behaviors that may lead to expulsions

WHY IS EXPULSION A CONCERN?
Research shows that preschool expulsions are linked to:
◦ Missed opportunities to learn, socialize with other children and interact with positive adult role models
◦ A risk of developing ongoing behavioral problems and negative views about learning, school, teachers, and the world around them, which can lead to greater challenges later in life

High expulsion rates are also an indicator that parents and caregivers need support in providing positive social and emotional opportunities for children to lay the foundation for all learning, future relationships and school readiness.

WHAT'S NEW?
Arizona Department of Economic Security (DES) Expulsion Prevention Services are now offered through AZ STEPS!
Families working with AZ STEPS can receive suspension and expulsion support and resources from a DES Contracted Resource Consultant by completing an Arizona Suspension and Expulsion Support Request Form.

WHAT IS AZ STEPS?
Arizona Statewide Training and Technical Assistance for Expulsion Prevention

WHY AZ STEPS?
AZ STEPS provides resources, support and training to help child care providers prevent suspensions and expulsion while strengthening their ability to support all children! AZ STEPS helps parents and teachers understand children's behaviors and how teaching social-emotional skills can help prepare them for social and academic success.

HOW CAN AZ STEPS HELP? AZ STEPS OFFERS:
◦ Online training that covers behavior, trauma, and social-emotional development for families and caregivers
◦ Resources and support to help prevent expulsion from happening in the first place by working with parents and childcare providers to promote a child’s success
◦ Mental Health consultations for families, teachers, and administrators to help meet the needs of the child

HOW TO ACCESS SUPPORT?
If you notice your child exhibiting challenging behaviors, or you believe your child is at risk for suspension or expulsion, submit an Arizona Suspension and Expulsion Prevention Support Request through Arizona Child Care Resource and Referral (CCR&R) by visiting azcrr.com or by calling 1-800-308-9000 (option 2), Monday-Friday 8 am-6 pm and Saturday 8 am-12 pm.

SERVICE CONSENT FORM

AZ STEPS has received an Arizona Suspension and Expulsion Support Request regarding your child. Please review, sign and return to the child care provider within two (2) business days to ensure timely service delivery and collaboration.

X_______ An AZ STEPS Resource Consultant contacted me to explain the AZ STEPS program and all services offered to families and child care providers before I was provided the Service Consent Form.

X_______ I understand a Resource Consultant may be observing and interacting with my child in the child care setting. I also understand that the Resource Consultant and child care provider may exchange information about my child in their efforts to understand and address my child’s needs and to enhance the overall quality of the child care program.

X_______ I understand that anything discussed between the Resource Consultant and the provider, my child, or myself is confidential, and protected by law. State and Federal laws indicate the following exceptions to the confidentiality policy: suspected child abuse and neglect, harm to self, or imminent harm to others.

X_______ I understand that I may revoke the right to participate in the AZ STEPS Program at any time. I will submit a written request to AZ STEPS that will include my signature. The revocation does not include any information that has been shared between the time that I gave permission to share information and the time it was cancelled.

I understand that the Service Consent Form expires one year from the date it is signed, unless otherwise indicated by myself.
