The Governor's Office of Youth, Faith and Family (GOYFF) seeks to educate all Arizona communities about substance abuse, the disease of addiction and the stigma associated with addiction. GOYFF envisions an Arizona where substance abuse is treated as a significant public health issue and therefore focuses on prevention education, early intervention and treatment for all. We believe that prevention is best, treatment is effective and people do recover!

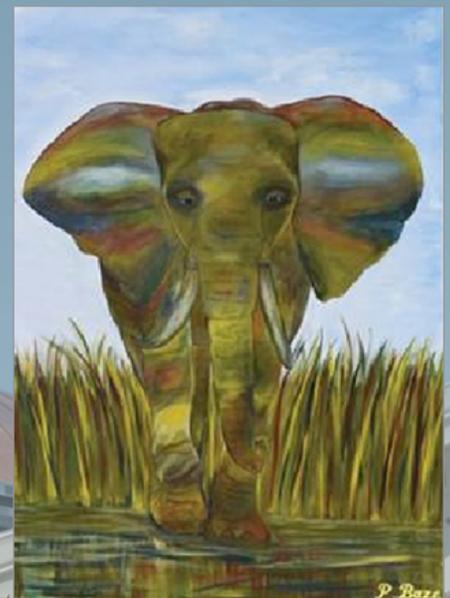

Program attendees include:

- Parents, Youth and Families
- Law enforcement, Corrections, First Responders, Judicial
- Educators, Superintendents, Principals, Universities, Colleges
- Doctors, Nurses, Pharmacists, Health Care and Treatment Providers
- Coalitions, non-profits, prevention providers

Substance abuse awareness and education in Arizona starts here!

Attendance is free, registration requested.
