The DDD Eligibility Application Process

How do I apply for DDD?

Visit https://bit.ly/ddd-eligibility to find information about eligibility.

The application can be found in the DDD Eligibility Packet. It can be found on the Eligibility web page. The application:

- ✓ Can be typed or hand-written, and
- ✓ Needs to be signed with a pen before sending it to DDD.

How do I fill out the application?

- Section A: Be sure the information provided is about the person applying for services.
- Section B: The contact information for the person helping with the application. The legal guardian's contact information. The legal guardian is:
 - ✓ Parent of the person applying if the person is under 18 years
 - ✓ Court-Appointed Legal Guardian
 - ✓ DCS Case Manager

If the person helping with the application is not the legal guardian, complete the Authorization for Disclosure of Protected Health Information form. This form can be found on page four (4) of the application packet. The form needs to be signed by the person applying.

- Section C: If you have health insurance, provide the information.
- Section D: Provide the most recent school information. Provide copies of the most recent Individualized Education Plan (IEP) or 504 plan, and the most recent Multidisciplinary Education Reports (MET).

Authorization for Disclosure of Protected Health Information: The form is the choice of the person applying. It allows DDD to share information with the person helping with the application.

Authorization for Release of Information:
This form is the choice of the person applying.
It allows DDD to request Protected Health
