

Domestic Violence Funding Administered By State Organizations
State Fiscal Year 2023

	State	Federal	Other	TOTAL
Criminal Justice Commission: Services include victim advocacy and outpatient counseling.	$ 311,511	$ 493,888	$ 23,658	$ 829,057
Arizona Department of Economic Security: Residential services including emergency shelter, transitional housing, and other housing interventions. Community and mobile advocacy services including counseling and case management. Other services provided are legal assistance, public awareness and training.	$ 3,283,000	$ 9,632,302	$ 2,858,598	$ 15,773,900
Department of Health Services: Services include emergency shelter, crisis intervention, case management, peer counseling, advocacy, legal advocacy, children's crisis intervention, counseling, training, and community education.		$ 606,319		$ 606,319
Department of Housing: Federal funds are used for the three Continuum of Care, Rapid Re-Housing and Permanent Housing domestic violence (DV) projects. Community Development Block Grant capital funds for program expansion of a DV facility.	$ -	$ 931,425		$ 931,425
Department of Public Safety: Services include counseling, personal and criminal justice victim advocacy, other supportive services, and training.	$ 360,864	$ 16,429,936		$ 16,790,800

Governor’s Office of Youth, Faith and Family: Services include advocacy, emergency shelter, transitional housing, supportive services, outreach, training, protocol development and law enforcement/prosecutorial services.		$ 2,913,217		$ 2,913,217
TOTALS	$ 3,955,375	$ 31,007,087	$ 2,882,256	$ 37,844,718

Additional Reports:

In support of the Judicial Branch's strategic agenda, the Supreme Court/Administrative Office of the Courts (AOC) provided the following DV services in State Fiscal Year 2023/2024: Court policy analysts to support various committees addressing issues of DV in the courts; automation trainers dedicated to teaching court staff DV case processing; and computer programmers committed to make necessary updates or enhancements to the statewide case management system , the Arizona Protective Order Initiation & Notification Tool and the AOC's public access portal. Additionally, funds were used to develop and provide DV education for judges and court staff at judicial branch training offerings as well as the other multidisciplinary DV conferences. These services are addressed by multiple divisions at the AOC.

The Office of the Attorney General distributed $1,780,000 for state mandated services for victims of crime. The Office of the Attorney General also indicated that there is no way to identify the amount of these funds used to support victims of DV.