Subject Line: Acting as the Educational Parent

Dear _____,

Your child, _____ has been referred for early intervention services through the Arizona Early Intervention Program. As the _____ you are the individual that is presumed to be the Educational Parent. As the Educational Parent you have the right to:

- Provide or decline to give consent;
- Request an initial evaluation or reevaluation;
- Actively participate on the IFSP Team;
- Receive copies of all early intervention documents; and
- Procedural safeguards.

Per our conversation on _____, you shared that you do not wish to act as the Educational Parent. You may change your mind about acting as the Educational Parent at any time. Your procedural safeguards are outlined in the Child and Family Rights in Arizona Early Intervention Program booklet that are attached to this letter.

If you change your mind or have any questions, please call me at _____ or email me at _____.

Sincerely,
