DDD RATE REBASE STUDY PROVIDER FORUM LINKS

Target Audience - Qualified Vendors and Providers

Transmittal Date - 07/06/2023

As previously announced, starting next week, on Monday July 10, 2023, Milliman will be conducting vendor forums where the draft survey will be shared. These forums will allow vendors to review and provide feedback on the survey before it is officially released. All forums will be held virtually. There will be separate forums for each service type so the discussions can be more focused. Please see the table below with the times and dates of these forums by service group. We've added the registration links below; please make sure to register ahead of time.
