You're Invited to AHCCCS Community Events in October

Target Audience - Qualified Vendors, Providers, DDD Members and Families

Transmittal Date - 10/8/2024

Join our Arizona Health Care Cost Containment System (AHCCCS) team for monthly community discussions!. These events are designed to help members, families, and stakeholders learn about programs and initiatives, and to solicit feedback. Be sure to share this valuable information with your patients, clients, families, and stakeholders so they can better understand Arizona's Medicaid services and how to find community resources and tools.

Find more! All of these events are posted on the AHCCCS calendar on www.azahcccs.gov. For previous presentations, please visit the Community Presentations Archive section on the Community Presentations web page.

JACOB'S LAW TRAINING

TOPIC(S): Jacob's Law

WHEN: Thursday, October 24, 2024: 11 a.m. - 1 p.m.

WHERE: Online on Zoom—register in advance.

WHO SHOULD ATTEND: AHCCCS members and their families, kinship caregivers, foster/adoptive caregivers, licensed foster caregivers, community members, behavioral health professionals, providers, advocates, and anyone who wants to learn more about Arizona's Medicaid program.

WHAT YOU'LL LEARN: Hear an overview of Jacob's Law (HB2442). This law makes it easier for foster, kinship and adoptive parents to get behavioral health services. Join us to learn about the Arizona Department of Child

Safety (DCS) placement packet, legal rights and protections for foster children and resource parents, and covered services. Training length is two (2) hours. Certificate of attendance is available upon request after attending the full presentation.

OFFICE OF INDIVIDUAL AND FAMILY AFFAIRS (OIFA) SYSTEM NAVIGATION MEETING

TOPIC(S): Release of Information and How it can Benefit Members

WHEN: Tuesday, October 22, 2024: Noon - 12:30 p.m.

WHERE: Online on Zoom—register in advance.

WHO SHOULD ATTEND: AHCCCS members and their families, community members, behavioral health professionals, providers, advocates, and anyone who wants to learn more about Arizona's Medicaid program.

WHAT YOU'LL LEARN: AHCCCS members have a right to privacy and to involve anyone in their care. A Release of Information (ROI) removes barriers that can often stand in the way of your health care team's ability to speak with your chosen supporters.
