

Early Intervention Specialization

Focus on birth to age three

This specialization is perfect for:

- Early childhood educators
- Special education teachers
- Early intervention-related service providers
- Child development specialists
- Early interventionists
- Early childhood administrators
- Parents, families and caregivers

Choose from nine topic courses developed in collaboration with the Arizona Early Intervention Program (AzEIP):

Available September 2024

- Early Intervention Policy
- Child Development
- Partnering with Families
- Infant Mental Health

Available February 2025

- Collaboration and Teaming
- Assessment Processes

Available October 2025

- Designing Learning Experiences
- Responsive and Reciprocal Interventions
- Professional Practice

Flexible online Professional Learning options aligned with DEC Professional Standards

Course type	Cost	Types of earnings
		Certificate of completion	Micro-credential	Continuing Education Unit (CEU)
Scheduled, cohort based, and instructor-led	$349*	☑ 45 Professional Learning hours awarded	☑	Optional add on $30
Open enrollment, self-paced	$149*	☑ 15 Professional Learning hours awarded		Optional add on $30
Micro-credential competency-based assessment	$99*		☑

*Cost per course

Are you ready to enhance your skills through focused, targeted professional development in early intervention to make a profound impact in the lives of young children with disabilities, ages birth to three, and their families?

Register for more information here

Contact us at asueducatorlearning@asu.edu or 602-543-7104 to begin the specialization today.