

An employer's role with Child Support

EMPLOYER RESPONSIBILITIES: REPORTING & INCOME WITHHOLDING

Employers are vital to the success of the child support program. The Arizona Division of Child Support Services (DCSS) appreciates your important role in employment reporting and employer child support requirements. We recognize that child support-related activities may create extra work for employers. Our DCSS Employer Relations team strives to simplify and streamline processes for employers to comply with their legal requirements as it relates to child support.

Please join us for an informative seminar on child support, your role and the services DCSS offers.
