

During the month of October, we shed light on domestic violence and the available resources to survivors. As Domestic violence Awareness Month comes to a close, we ask for your continued vigilance to sustain the focus on domestic violence throughout.

10 million people a year are physically abused by an intimate partner.

Did you know?

In the United States, an average of 20 people experience intimate partner physical violence every minute.

On a typical day, there are more than 20,000 phone calls placed to domestic violence hotlines nationwide.
