

WORLD ELDER ABUSE AWARENESS DAY

Building Strong Support for Elders

- WHEREAS: Older adults deserve to be treated with respect and dignity to enable them to serve as leaders, mentors, volunteers and vital participating members of our communities;
- WHEREAS: In 2006, the International Network for the Prevention of Elder Abuse, in support of the United Nations International Plan of Action, proclaimed a day to recognize the significance of elder abuse as a public health and human rights issue; and
- WHEREAS: The National Center on Elder Abuse (NCEA) and the State of Arizona recognize the importance of taking action to raise awareness, prevent and address elder abuse; and
- WHEREAS: As our population lives longer, we are presented with an opportunity to think about our collective needs and future as a nation; and
- WHEREAS: Ageism and social isolation are major causes of elder abuse in the United States; and
- WHEREAS: Recognizing that it is up to all of us to ensure that proper social structures exist so people can retain community and societal connections, reducing the likelihood of abuse; and
- WHEREAS: Preventing abuse of older adults through maintaining and improving social supports like senior centers, human services and transportation will allow everyone to continue to live as independently as possible and contribute to the life and vibrancy of our communities; and
- WHEREAS: Justice cannot coexist with abuse, and by honoring older adults, we can restore justice.
- NOW,
THEREFORE
I,
- I, Douglas A. Ducey, Governor of the State of Arizona, do hereby proclaim June 15, 2021 as World Elder Abuse Awareness Day and encourage all of our communities to recognize and celebrate older adults and their ongoing contributions to the success and vitality of our country.
