DES Announces Relocation of Multi-Service Center DES Gilbert office moves to Chandler

PHOENIX – The Department of Economic Security (DES) is pleased to announce the relocation of the Gilbert Multi-Service Center from 2290 W. Guadalupe Road to 125 E. Elliot Road in Chandler.

“This new facility will improve workplace safety and security for DES colleagues and clients,” said Director Timothy Jeffries. “The additional space will allow also us to better serve those in need of assistance. The move to this new facility is exciting for our colleagues and will result in even better service for our clients. This is just another example of our belief in People First, People Always.”

The 80,000 square foot facility will continue to house DES colleagues from all program divisions in one central location. Some of the notable features of the new building include a larger lobby, which will accommodate more clients in comfort as they wait for services; a pre-recorded intercom system to alert staff members of possible safety issues and increased parking for staff and clients. Additional handicapped parking spaces have also been added.

Child support services at the Gilbert office will stop taking payments at 12 noon tomorrow, Friday, July 29. The Family Assistance Administration will be open until 5:00p.m. The new location at 125 E. Elliot Road, Chandler, will be open for business at 8:00 a.m. Monday, August 1, 2016.
